Tuesday 03/10/15	On Sunday, 03/08/15, three subjects were arrested in the 800 block of Labaron Drive. They were driving a stolen vehicle that had been taken beforehand in an Armed Robbery in unincorporated Miami Dade County. They parked in front of a vacant house and two of the subjects got out and began casing the neighborhood. A vigilant neighbor called MSPD and they responded to the scene. The subjects were located and arrested for Auto Theft and Loitering and Prowling. The next day, property from one residence was found in the yard of a different residence. The subjects had apparently dumped the property before being located by the officers dispatched to the area to investigate. The property was returned to its owner. Yesterday, one of the subjects was interviewed in jail and admitted to being responsible for some of the burglaries to garages and sheds that have occurred in the east end of the city over the past couple of weeks.
Wednesday 03/11/15	Burglary Curtilage – 1000 block of Quail Avenue. A pool vacuum was taken from a house under renovations.
Wednesday 03/11/15	Arrest - Attempted Vehicle Burglary – 800 block of Wren Avenue. One juvenile subject was seen opening the unlocked door of the victim's car while another acted as a lookout. The victim yelled at the subjects and they fled. Subjects were found several blocks away and admitted to the crime. They were arrested.
Wednesday 03/11/15	Theft – 100 block of Curtiss Parkway. Bicycle was left chained to a pole outside of victim's apartment. Unknown subject cut the chain and took the bicycle.
