ORDINANCE NO. 1027-2011

 10-10-2011

AN ORDINANCE OF THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF MIAMI SPRINGS AMENDING CODE OF ORDINANCE 102-01, RE-OCCUPANCY CERTIFICATION, BY ADDING THERETO PROVISIONS OFFERING AN ADDITIONAL "INFORMATIONAL INSPECTION" FOR PURCHASERS OF RESIDENTIAL PROPERTIES SUBJECT TO RE-OCCUPANCY INSPECTIONS; REPEALING ALL ORDINANCES OR PARTS OF ORDINANCES IN CONFLICT; EFFECTIVE DATE.

WHEREAS, the City has often received comments from new owners of residential properties in the City that are unaware of code violations that existed on their new properties when purchased; and,

WHEREAS, although the City requires re-occupancy certification inspections of residential properties being sold in the City, such inspections are limited to determinations of compliance with the single-family use configuration requirements of the Code of Ordinances; and,

WHEREAS, while no citations may be issued for other code violations observed during the certification inspection process, it is not impermissible to provide "information" of such other violations to prospective residential property purchasers; and,

WHEREAS, this additional inspection process would be cursory in nature, meant only to provide "information" on existing code violations that were readily observable during the certification and property survey review processes, would not constitute any warranty or guaranty to the prospective residential property owner against other "undiscovered" code violations, and would not be meant to be a substitute for the prospective purchaser's own due diligence inspections of the subject residential property; and,

WHEREAS, by electing to request this additional inspection process, the prospective residential property purchaser would be placed on notice of any readily observable existing code violations on the subject property; and,

WHEREAS, the City Council of the City of Miami Springs has determined that it is in the best interests of the City and its citizens to approve and authorize the proposed amendment in order to provide prospective residential property purchasers in the City with as much pre-closing information as possible regarding the properties being acquired:

NOW, THEREFORE, BE IT ORDAINED BY THE CITY COUNCIL OF THE CITY OF MIAMI SPRINGS, FLORIDA:

Section 1: That Code of Ordinance Section 102-01, Re-Occupancy Certification, is hereby amended as follows:

Section 102.01. Re-Occupancy Certification.

- (A) ...
- (B) ...
- (C) ...

- (1) ...
- (2) ...
- (3) ...

(4) Contemporaneously with the filing of the application to initiate the Re-Occupancy Certificate inspection process, the owner/seller shall also file an "Affidavit of Requested Informational Inspection" attesting that the prospective purchaser of the subject property has either accepted or refused the City's offer to conduct an additional "informational only" inspection of the subject property during the certification process. This additional inspection shall be subject to the following limitations and exceptions, to-wit:

- (a) Shall only be cursory in nature.
- (b) Shall identify only readily observable code violations discovered while visiting the subject premises and examining the current property survey.
- (c) Shall not include any records examination or invasive property inspections for other "undiscovered" code violations that may exist.
- (d) Shall not constitute any type of warranty or guaranty to the prospective purchaser of property conditions or code compliance status by the City.
- (e) Is not intended to be a substitute for the prospective purchaser's due diligence inspections of the subject property.

The City shall provide an appropriate affidavit form for this purpose and shall establish the fee for the informational inspection by City Resolution. The form of the Affidavit and the amount of the fee charged for the informational inspection may be amended from time to time as determined to be required by the City. As part of the inspection process, the owner/seller shall provide an accurate survey or sketch of the sale premises which sets forth thereon the location, size and generic identification of each tree located on the property being sold.

(4)(5) Upon receipt of an application for inspection and the payment of the initial inspection fee, along with the properly executed "Affidavit of Requested Information Inspection" (and appropriate fee, if applicable), an authorized representative of the Department of Building, Zoning and Code Enforcement shall inspect the subject property within ten days thereof. The appropriate Re-Occupancy Certificate, along with a listing of other property code violations observed, if any, during any requested "information property inspection", shall be issued should the subject premises be determined to be in compliance with the single-family residential occupancy regulation of the City Code of Ordinances and that it is designed, configured and being used for single-family residential purposes only. If, however, the subject property is not in full compliance with the foregoing requirements, the Department shall prepare an itemized list of all code and district regulation violations and notify the owner/seller in writing of all corrective action required to obtain the necessary certificate. The aforesaid notice shall also provide that the determination of property noncompliance by the Department may be appealed by filing a written notice of appeal with the City Manager within five days of receipt of said notice of noncompliance. Upon receipt of a written notice of appeal, the City Manager shall conduct an appeal hearing at the earliest possible time. The written appellate decision of the City Manager shall constitute final City action in regard to the determination of the issuance of a Re-Occupancy Certificate. No certificate shall be issued by the Department for any premises until all specified violations have been corrected to the satisfaction of the City.

General Instructions

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee. If applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Ne a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to eq your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

Definition of a U.S. person. For federal tax purposes, you are considered a U.S. person if you are:

- An estate (other than a foreign estate), or

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

Part II Certification

Under penalties of perjury, I certify that:

- The number shown on this form is my correct taxpayer identification number (or I am waiting for a number to be issued to me); and
- I am not subject to backup withholding because: (a) I am exempt from backup withholding, or (b) I have not been notified by the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) that I am subject to backup withholding as a result of a failure to report all interest or dividends, or (c) the IRS has notified me that I am no longer subject to backup withholding, and

Certification instructions: You must cross out item 2 above if you have been notified by the IRS that you are currently subject to backup withholding because you have failed to report all interest and dividends on your tax return. For real estate transactions, item 2 does not apply. (See the instructions on page 4.)

Sign Here Signature of U.S. person Barbara Conits Date 5/16/2011

Purpose of Form

A person who is required to file an information return with the IRS, must obtain your correct taxpayer identification number (TIN) to report, for example, income paid to you, real estate transactions, mortgage interest you paid, acquisition or abandonment of secured property, cancellation of debt, or contributions you made to an IRA.

U.S. person. Use Form W-9 only if you are a U.S. person* (including a resident alien), to provide your correct TIN to the person requesting it (the requester) and, when applicable, to:

- Certify that the TIN you are giving is correct (or you are waiting for a number to be issued),
- Certify that you are not subject to backup withholding, or
- Claim exemption from backup withholding if you are a U.S. exempt payee.

In 3 above, if applicable, you are also certifying that as a U.S. person, your allocable share of any partnership income from a U.S. trade or business is not subject to the withholding tax on foreign partners' share of effectively connected income.

Note. If a requester gives you a form other than Form W-9 to request your TIN, you must use the requester's form if it is substantially similar to this Form W-9.

For federal tax purposes, you are considered a person if you are:

- An individual who is a citizen or resident of the United States,
- A partnership, corporation, company, or association created or organized in the United States or under the laws of the United States, or
- Any estate (other than a foreign estate) or trust. See Regulations sections 301.7701-6(a) and 7(a) for additional information.

Special rules for partnerships. Partnerships that conduct a trade or business in the United States are generally required to pay a withholding tax on any foreign partners' share of income from such business. Further, in certain cases where a Form W-9 has not been received, a partnership is required to presume that a partner is a foreign person, and pay the withholding tax. Therefore, if you are a U.S. person that is a partner in a partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States, provide Form W-9 to the partnership to establish your U.S. status and avoid withholding on your share of partnership income.

The person who gives Form W-9 to the partnership for purposes of establishing its U.S. status and avoiding withholding on its allocable share of net income from the partnership conducting a trade or business in the United States is in the following cases:

- The U.S. owner of a disregarded entity and not the entity.
