SCHEDULE YOUR NEXT PERFORMANCE IN OUR NEW SPACE!!!

The Rebeca Sosa Theater, located on the second floor of the new Miami Springs Community Center, 1401 Westward Drive in Miami Springs, is an intimate midnight blue box theater that seats 100 to 200 people.

The interior configuration (42' x 60') is variable, according to your needs, and has an 18' high black cyclorama and two matching wing curtains.

The sound and lighting equipment are state-of-the-art, and include 48 dimmers, wireless headset communication between the tech booth and the stage and 16 wireless microphones available for rental. Professional sound and lighting technicians are also available.

There is a spacious backstage with male and female dressing rooms (18' x 18'), a unisex ADA-compliant restroom and a green room (20' x 20')

A portable ticket booth can be set up in the large and beautifully decorated lobby, which is also perfect for intermission refreshment sales and meet and greets. The theater, lobby and ADA-compliant public restrooms are universally accessible via elevator. Ample, convenient and safe parking is located in front of the building.
